The value of Canada's fishery last year was close on nineteen million dollars. This is a little less than the figure recorded for 1891, but it is two millions in excess of those for 1892 and double the output of twenty years ago.

The latest use for aluminum is for street car tickets. A Michigan street railway has just made its first issue of these tokens, which are about the size of a silver quarter. One is worth for ordinary fare, the other optional for children. As soon as the tickets are turned in by the public to the railroad company they are done up in packages and sold again. It is said that the tickets are much in favor in Kalamazoo, where they have been introduced, and that they are handled by a great many street car keepers.

A proposition to hold a World's Fair in London in 1896 or 1898 was discussed at a public meeting to promote the object two weeks ago, at which Mr. Croydon, M. P., and other prominent men supported the proposition. A universal exhibition has not been held in London in thirty-one years, while in that period four successive exhibitions have been held in France. The Lord Mayor and chairman of the chamber of Commerce will shortly receive a deputation on the subject and consider it.

In an electric road recently constructed in England a radical departure from American methods has been made. A trolley wire is suspended from arms projecting from steel columns; no guy wires are employed, as the steel wires are especially designed to withstand severe strains. At the corners of the trolley wire, instead of following a curve of the same radius of the track, as in the American system, is turned on an angle the whole system depending on the flexibility of the trolley wire on arm or side collector, as it is called, which automatically engages the trolley wire in any position from two to twelve feet from the side of the car.

The Glens is so frightened over the coming visit of Sir Charles Thompson, he is so frightened by the rumor of his own invasion that Sir John Thompson will not on the Supreme Court bench and that Sir Charles will succeed him as Premier, that it hastens to say of Sir John—of whom it has spoken as the father in his high official life—he is the ablest man in the Conservative party, not excepting Sir Charles Tupper. There is amusement in this for the onlookers.

The financial panic in the United States has knocked out the annexation club—also poor Goldwin Smith, Elgin Myers and S. R. Clark—and put an end to the clamor of commercial annexation by the Grit press. "It's no ill wind," &c.

A Postmaster in Toronto. GRANTLEY, Ont., July 31.—Probably there is no man more widely known in the county of Dundas and vicinity than Mr. C. M. Grantley, of this place. He has carried on business as a general store-keeper for twenty years, and his name is as good as a household word. He has long been the local postmaster. He has long been a prominent church member, and a leading man in social circles. He has been looked up to with respect and esteem, and his word, to be a phrase current among those who know him, is as good as his bond. It was a matter of general regret when it became known that he was going to resign his office, and that he was suffering from dropsy, which has since been cured. The pleasure of Mr. Grantley's friends was more easily imagined than described, when it was learned he had begun using Dodd's Kidney Pills, and that he had found a cure by means of which he is regaining sound health.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she clung to Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

A BIG MINING DEAL.
The Lingham Gold Mine sold for $44,000—Other Transactions in Prospect.
Our mining district is attracting considerable attention, as almost daily mining experts and other interested in minerals are investigating the country. One of the chief investors is Mr. Alex. Osholson, of New York, an old Belleville boy, who has become wealthy in the Empire state, and is now turning his attention and capital in the direction of the mining districts in the rear townships. Some time since he purchased a large tract of land, the production of which, greatly exaggerated, he claims to be the finest quality, and which he is now processing. A few days since the same gentleman purchased the Crawford (Lingham) mine for $14,000, and he is now in Mamora, preparing to develop it to its fullest extent.

The Greatest Yet

One of the greatest discoveries ever made in the medical line for the cure of scaly diseases and dandruff, is now getting introduced into this country, and placed on sale by the drug trade.

There is nothing more easily than a scaly scalp, and nothing more disagreeable than to see dandruff falling down on your coat or hat, or to feel it on your head.

Apply a little of this ointment to the scalp, and it will cure you, and it will not hurt you.

Queer Answers Given at the Recent Examination for Entrance to the High School.

A gentleman, who has a keen sense of the ridiculous, was allowed to look over some of the papers of the candidates who wrote answers to the High School at the examination last month and has called the following from them. It is amusing to note that those whose names we published were not the only ones who gave such answers.

In the English literature paper, the poem was Tennyson's well-known "The Charge of the Light Brigade," in which are the lines "Ring out false pride in place and power."

The candidate was asked to explain what was the meaning of "false pride in place and power." The answer was: "The charge of the Light Brigade." "The charge of the Light Brigade." "The charge of the Light Brigade."

"Survival of the Fittest!"

That business will not succeed which is conducted on the fairest principles. During these terrifically dull times "which try men's souls," we want you to know that we are not for one moment forgetting those sterling qualities which are needful to our permanent success. As a rule, we do not offer our goods from our great stock at less than cost, but always figure on close margins of profit, and remember we place before you a stock of clothing superior to any in Belleville. Some unscrupulous dealers will tell you our goods are shoddy, etc., or we could not sell them so cheap. Once before we offered to donate $500 to any charitable institution in Belleville if for honest goods our stock is surpassed in Canada. We again make this offer, and if our competitors who cry shoddy! would only accept this challenge the public would soon see who carries the best goods. Furthermore we will donate another $500 if we can't prove we have lowered the price of clothing at least 33 per cent since opening here, and this is our strongest guarantee that we conduct our business on honest principles. For the next 60 days we are going to hold a big

—SLAUGHTER SALE—

It is our intention this fall to manufacture all our own goods here in Belleville, thereby giving our patrons a chance to have their goods made to measure at the same cost as ready to wear garments. Boys' Kicker Pants lined, for.....	39c	Youths' $9 Fine Suit for.....	$6 00

Judge Frazer Dismisses the Recent Legislation in the House.

Judge Frazer was asked by the JOURNAL to give his opinion as to the new statute permitting prisoners to give evidence in their own behalf.

"To allow a prisoner to give evidence in his own behalf is a new principle introduced into our criminal procedure, although not a novelty in criminal matters, for this principle has been adopted and acted upon for some years in several countries in Europe."

"A prisoner, if guilty, may not very safely avail himself of this privilege, but he has the right to be heard by the jury."

"On the other hand, if the accused is not guilty, he may be able to explain away certain facts and circumstances which may appear to be against him and pointing towards his guilt."

"It must be borne in mind that an innocent person may be charged with a crime and severely punished, while detectives, constables, reporters for newspapers, and others are released, every place, paper, turning every trifling fact or circumstance which tends to establish, not his innocence, but his guilt."

"In this connection, I may perhaps be permitted to point out one of our oldest commissioners on the law of evidence."

I cite from Taylor, Blackstone editor, Belleville.

"With respect to policemen, constables, and others employed in the apprehension and detection of crime, their testimony against a prisoner should be generally treated with care, because they are 'professionally' led, as it is by an 'habitual intercourse with the law, and by the frequent contemplation of human nature in the most revolting form, almost necessarily leads them to ascribe motives to the worst motives, and to give a coloring of guilt to facts and conversations which, in private life, they would not do."

"Notwithstanding this, that all men are guilty till they are proved to be innocent, is the natural creed of the police; but it is a creed which finds no sanction in a court of justice."

Aptly at page 88: "Something occurs to me to suggest a particular amendment to the police officers."

"Immediately on the arrest, and with professional zeal, presuming him guilty from the first, they are apt to consider him so."

"It is a fact reflection on their disqualification of skill, and with something like the feelings of a keen sportsman they determine, if possible, to bag this game."

"Innocent actions may thus be misinterpreted, innocent minds misinterpreted, and as men rarely believe what they are told, they are led to believe what they see."

"The police, therefore, are not to be trusted, and it is not to be asserted that this is frequently the case, nor is it intended to disparage the police. The feelings by which they are actuated are common to counsel, engineers, surgeons, medical men, etc. In fact to all persons who first assume that a fact or system is true, and then seek for evidence to support and prove its truth."

"We have seen several cases wherein defense have, in their zeal to convict the accused, permitted the guilty to escape."

"This statute may or may not attain the end designed by the framers."

"But the presumption in a County Judge to question the propriety of the Act when placed upon the statute book by the Legislature is a gross mistake."

"Not very long ago a prisoner accused of crime was denied the right of counsel, and in some cases, if they were sent to the gallows without the benefit of a lawyer."

"A few years ago the law of evidence in civil cases was improved by allowing the defendant to call witnesses in his own defense in their own behalf. Many lawyers and judges questioned the propriety of the Act at the time, but it has been found to be a wise and just measure, and it would now be considered an act of barbarism to repeal that statute and leave the defendant at the mercy of the law."

"It will thus be seen that it has taken all the time from William the Norman, when the law was first introduced into this country, to the close of the nineteenth century to discover that a plaintiff or a defendant might be prejudiced by the law."

"I am of the opinion that the late amendment to the law of evidence is a just and proper one."

"Survival of the Fittest!"

That business will best succeed which is conducted on the fairest principles.

During these terrifically dull times "which try men's souls," we want you to know that we are not for one moment forgetting those sterling qualities which are needed for our permanent success.

As a rule we do not offer goods from our great stock at less than cost, but always figure on close margins.

Some unscrupulous dealers will tell you our goods are shoddy, etc., or we could not sell them so cheap.

Once before we offered to donate $500 to any charitable institution in Belleville if for honest goods our stock is surpassed in Canada.

We again make this offer, and if our competitors who cry shoddy! would only accept this challenge the public would soon see who carries the best goods.

Furthermore we will donate another $500 if we can't prove we have lowered the price of clothing at least 35 per cent since opening here, and this is our strongest guarantee that we conduct our business on honest principles.

For the next 60 days we are going to hold a big

SLAUGHTER SALE.

It is our intention this fall to manufacture all our own goods here in Belleville, thereby giving our patrons a chance to have their goods made to measure at the same cost as ready to wear garments.

And in order to clear out our present stock and prepare for this we will sell goods at the following prices for the next 60 days—

It is still effective.

Those who may be inclined to give heed to the assertion which the Grits have for some years been repeating, that the N. F. is played on, will find food for reflection in the following, which we reproduce from that excellent non-partisan commercial newspaper, the Montreal Journal of Commerce:

Those who argue that the Protective tariff has "served its usefulness," would do well to consider the present situation. Prior to 1878 the production of manufactured goods in the States, caused special attention to be paid to the Canadian market. The production across the line had been going ahead of demand. Stocks were accumulating, and no immediate prospect of their reduction were to be seen. The manufacturers were in a state of working of those goods on Canadian, hence a steady stream began to flow in of such articles as we were making, at prices with which we could not compete. By making a "dumping market" of Canada, the Americans killed two birds with one stone. They got cash for their unsalable surplus stocks, and at the same time commenced war upon a competitor whom they were anxious to destroy, whom they had regarded as weakening to a threatening extent.

The Canadian tariff at that period imposed no effective barrier to those imports, imports that were the materials for carrying on a war against our own manufactures. The United States manufacturers could afford to sacrifice a large proportion of ordinary products to secure sales. Indeed, so pressed were they for money that they, in some cases, would afford to sacrifice the entire profits in order to get rid of stocks that were eating themselves up in storage charges, and interest, and depreciation.

The old woman who explained how she could sell apples so cheaply, said she lived on the home. When a factory is making up goods which cannot be sold at ordinary prices, it may be better even to sell goods at a loss than to keep them. The shutting down of a mill, or factory, is often a very costly business. Machinery cannot be sold at a profit, and the cost of depreciation, and, within limits of course, it may pay a manufacturer to sell his goods at the barest cost of production, or even below it, for a time, in order to avoid the greater loss which closing up would cause.

That is the position in which a large number of U. S. manufacturers are now placed. They have stocks on hand which are unsalable, they are in great need of ready cash; if then the markets of Canada were now unprotected there would be such an influx of American goods as would drown out the industries of this country like one from a vast reservoir.

The calamity would bring the manufacturers of Canada into even a more financial and industrial plight than that in which American ones are now. The tariff, with all its faults, is at this time demonstrating more than it has ever done, the value and necessity of guarding our country from slaughtering operations. The contention that the tariff has done for our industries what it has done for the "taking them out of the circle" as one speaker said—who often mistakes factitiousness for sense—proceeds on the assumption that trade goes on with the unobstructed freedom of the planetary system.

Trade, however, is subject to tornadoes and cyclones, and a disastrous one would now be leveling our industries, but for the wind guard of our tariff system.

SPRINGBROOK.

Harvesting is well advanced. The season has been very dry and the crops are generally good. The wheat is particularly good, and the corn is also well advanced. The fruit is also good, and the season is generally a good one.

THE EDITOR OF THE INTELLIGENCER.

There is, in my opinion, no more difficult property of which to form a correct opinion than the milk cow. Man may judge of the quality of the milk, but he cannot judge of the quality of the cow. The quality of the milk is a matter of fact, but the quality of the cow is a matter of opinion. The quality of the milk is a matter of fact, but the quality of the cow is a matter of opinion. The quality of the milk is a matter of fact, but the quality of the cow is a matter of opinion.

Valentine Viole in Chicago.

Two Berlin gentlemen visited the World's Fair last week, and were walking along Clark street in Chicago one day, when two suspicious-looking peddlers approached, and asked them to purchase some goods, asking $20 for one article. The two men were dressed as clerks, and pretended to be able to speak only a few words of English. The Berliners were at once struck with the features of one of the "foreigners," which they thought looked familiar. They stood directly with an idea one of the Ocasia dance remarked, "Well, Valentine, how are you?" The fellow was fairly caught, and throwing off his head dress, which hid his face, disclosed the well-known features of Valentine Viole, a German who was a very successful theatrical actor in Berlin, and who was now in Chicago, and was selling for $20 each only $10, and he says he is making money. Viole felt rather sheepish at being taken for a peddler, but he did not refuse to go to the peddler's room, and he was not recognized by the Berliners before they recognized him.

The Greatest Yet.

One of the greatest discoveries ever made in the medical line for the cure of scurvy disease and scurvy, is now getting spread all over the world, and is being sold by the drug trade. There is nothing more valuable than a scurvy cure, and nothing more valuable than a scurvy cure, and nothing more valuable than a scurvy cure.

APPLICABLE MENTION.

Robert J. Bonham's son is like magic. A house and farmstead were sold, and the proceeds were used to pay the mortgage.

market was very quiet in England. Factory salesmen are very anxious to contract for the balance of the season's make, but the exporters are shy. The market does not warrant their making deals at present.

more protection against the heavy fall of rain than a sieve. The rains for the past few days will do a great deal of good to dry lands.

Prizes Edward Lodge, Oronoco; Bay Side Lodge, No. 124, Redneville; Terrestrial Lodge, George Brinkman and Wm. Wain. Arriving at the grove again the Rev. S. A. Dupont acted as chairman.

He made a short address, in which he expressed the hope that some day in the not distant future the various orders of Oddfellows would be merged into one great society.

Rev. H. McTigue, although not a member of the order, expressed his pleasure at being present, congratulating the Redneville lodge on the success of the demonstration. He was glad to know that the order was a beneficiary one and that its range for good had reached all over the Dominion.

James E. Glenn followed in a few congratulatory remarks, when Mr. H. Collins, Grand Master, took the platform and delivered an interesting and instructive address on the progress and development of the order. He compared the insurance system of the C. O. F., with that of other societies and pointed out that there was among the best.

The society had a surplus of over $25,000 and was on a sound basis. The per capita being kept within the country. In conclusion, the speaker drew attention to the property of Canada as compared to that of the United States, and the difference in the rates of insurance.

He said that the country has never before experienced such a low rate of insurance. He called upon the members to take their interest and to attend the membership of those who had not already joined the order.

W. B. Northrup, M. P., congratulated Redneville Lodge on having secured the assistance of ladies, who were largely responsible for the success of the demonstration. "Survival of the Fittest!"

That business will best succeed which is conducted on the fairest principles. During these terrifically dull times "which try men's souls," we want you to know that we are not for one moment forgetting those sterling qualities which are needful to our permanent success. As a rule we do not offer goods from our great stock at less than cost but always figure on close margins of profit, and remember we place before you a stock of clothing superior to any in Belleville. Some unscrupulous dealers will tell you our goods are shoddy, etc., or we could not sell them so cheap. Once before we offered to donate $500 to any charitable institution in Belleville for honest goods our stock is surpassed in Canada. We again make this offer, and if our competitors who cry shoddy! would only accept this challenge the public would soon see who carries the best goods. Furthermore we will donate another $500 if we can't prove we have lowered the price of clothing at least 33 per cent. since opening here, and this is our strongest guarantee that we conduct our business on honest principles. For the next 60 days we are going to hold a big

BEHAVIOR, TUESDAY AUG. 29.

PRINCE EDWARD PATRONS.

The Patrons of Industry for the County of Prince Edward met at Pictou on Saturday and unanimously passed resolutions condemning party strife, class legislation, and all unfair discrimination against the agricultural and laboring classes of this Dominion. The convention unanimously decided to put candidates in the field to contest the county in their interest at the approaching Provincial and Dominion elec-tions, the selection of candidates to take place on September 16 at a convention of delegates, to be appointed by the local as-sociations of the county for the purpose.

We advise Conservatives to be very chary of committing themselves to this movement, which looks much like a dodge to save Mr. Sprague from defeat.

EDITORIAL DRIVELERS.

Mr. Laurier is shortly to begin a stump-ing tour of the Province. The leader of the Opposition started a similar expedition in 1888, but was virtually driven from the province for his disparaging references to the connection with the Atlantic fishery question. This may not be pleasing to Mr. Laurier or his friends, but it is history.

"It is always the unexpected that hap-pens." The Brockville Record—says of a member of the Dominion Government—"Mr. Bowell may be old, but nevertheless he is the only cabinet minister who can be depended on to do the work of the other fellows while they fatter about the country in palaces here. Notwithstanding his age he is to-day the hardest worker in the Government, and he is known to be a continual plodder in departmental work. Mr. Bowell has certainly earned retirement to a fine comfortable berth, if any of the ministers ever did, and it is to be desired that public life, the country would be pleased to see this much-honored gov-ernor of Manitoba or the Territories. It is not all his folly, though, that the venerable gentleman has any idea of retiring just at present."

Agriculture is going from bad to worse in England under Free Trade. The Farmers' Advertiser says: "From a corre-spondent we have the following information, which shows the state of agriculture in the County of Essex." He states that at Colchester recently there was put up for sale a very nice household farm of 600 acres, really good arable land, a first-rate house and buildings and eight out-puts, and this was sold for £10,000 per acre, building one of the houses. Sixteen years ago the same lot sold for £245 per acre. Another lot included 178 acres upon which £1,000 had been spent in draining, and this sold for £1,650. Thirteen acres of arable land sold for £180, and twenty-two acres of good marsh pasture land at £400. There was actually sold about a fortnight ago a farm of 200 acres, with house and outbuildings, for £250; the tenant had been paying £150 a year rent."

"Don't buy a blood-purifier because it is cheap." The best—the Superior Medi-cine—Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is in the end, the cheapest blood purifier in the market. The ingredients of which it is composed are the most expensive and medicinal—effusions that can be obtained.

The Gracious Yet One of the greatest diseases ever made in the medical line for the cure of scap-dims and dandruff, is now getting in-troduced into this country, and blood on-ly by the drug trade. There is nothing more easily than a scaly scalp, and it is more dis-agreeable than to see dandruff falling down on your coat or on the back of your head.

Sixth in the South American republic of Colombia, with $3,400,000. British India comes next, with $2,400,000. All the other countries follow in small contributions.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

W. J. WILSON JUMPS FROM A RAIL AND IS STRUCK BY AN ENGINE.

His Haggard and Atoned. He is now in the hospital.

W. J. Wilson, accountant, who resides on Church street, had a narrow escape from a terrible death about eight o'clock last night. He was on a train from Mr. Curry, Plattsburgh, to go into the country.

Owing to the blinding rain, the train was running on the tracks. The night was very dark and the compass of the rig was unable to see any great distance ahead of him.

While crossing the railway track at Sidney Crescent he thought he heard the rumbling of wheels, and looking out he saw the head light of an engine within a few feet of him.

He jumped from the rig just as it was struck by the engine and knocked into a ditch.

Mr. Wilson must have struck his head as he jumped to the ground, also it was some time before he regained consciousness.

The accident was a very serious one and the horse escaped serious injury and was found this morning by the fireman with the engine.

"Survival of the Fittest!"

That business will best succeed which is conducted on the fairest principles. During these terrifically dull times "which try men's souls," we want you to know that we are not for one moment forgetting those sterling qualities which are essential to our permanent success. As a rule we do not offer goods from our great stock at less than cost, but always figure on close margins of profit, and remember we place before you a stock of clothing superior to any in Belleville. Some unscrupulous dealers will tell you our goods are shoddy, etc., or we could not sell them so cheap. Once before we offered to donate $500 to any charitable institution in Belleville for the honest goods our stock is surpassed in Canada. We again make this offer, and if our competitors who cry shoddy! would only accept this challenge the public would soon see who carries the best goods. Furthermore we will donate another $500 if we can't prove we have lowered the price of clothing at least 33 per cent. since opening here, and this is our strongest guarantee that we conduct our business on honest principles. For the next 60 days we are going to hold a big

-SLAUGHTER SALE-

It is our intention this fall to manufacture all our own goods here in Belleville, thereby giving our patrons a chance to have their goods made to measure at the same cost as ready to wear garments. DRIVEN BY THE GALE.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF THE
STEAM BARGE IONA ON LAKE ONTARIO.

Her Deck Freight Overboard—The Passengers Prepared for Death, but are Brought Into Port After 24 Hours of Struggling With the Elements.

On Wednesday, Aug. 29—the steam barge Iona, J. D. Van Alstyne, master and principal owner, left Trenton on the day of Quintessence 6 o'clock Sunday evening with passenger and passengers for Oswego. As she came out on the lake she caught the wind from the east, blowing pretty fresh, and about 3 a.m. when between the Gallop and Duck Islands, the storm struck her with great fury. The gale was carried away and about 7 a.m. the deck log, consisting of 400,000 picks and 50,000 feet of log, was washed overboard.

The wind whipped around to the northwest, and the barge drove into Nine Mile Bay, which she reached about 9 o'clock. She kept drifting towards the shore until she was within 500 feet of the breakers, and it looked as though she must be lost. The passengers got ready to leave themselves and for a time it seemed as though all hopes of saving their lives lay in floating across to the lumber which composed the cargo. In fact word was telegraphed to the life saving crew at this city that she was ashore and Capt. Parker mounted his life-boat on a wagon and went out to rescue the passengers and crew.

Capt. Van Alstyne and the mate, Richard Walters, did not despair, but worked heroically to save the vessel, and the crew responded with a will, never relaxing their efforts from 9 o'clock until she was safely brought along the wharf in the East cove at 6 o'clock this evening. For 24 hours she had a mouthful of food and when she was safely moored some of the lady passengers, who had bravely faced what appeared to be an inevitable death, gave way to tears of joy at their wonderful escape. They are now in their places.
Capt. Van Alstyne, Mate Walters and the noble crew for their coolness and courage, which almost saved the vessel and her human cargo.

The following are the names of the passengers, all from the vicinity of Belleville, Ont.: Mrs. Capt. Collier, Dorland Collier, Mrs. William J. Clark, Charles Clark, R. F.
Jones, John Brown and daughter, George Pierce, Catherine La Point, and Kate Waters.

BELLEVILLE WATER WORKS.

The Proprietors Bank by the Financial

New York, Aug. 30.—Moffitt, Hodgkin & Co., of this city and Chicago, for whom a receiver was appointed at Waterloo today, have failed a creditor to their creditors, in which they say that the assets of the company, chiefly water, railroads and electric light bonds, with a few stocks, real estate and life receivables, amount to $1,200,000. The direct liabilities of the company amount to about $300,000, and the contingent liabilities cannot exceed $400,000.

The foregoing refers to the firm who built and own the Belleville water works.
The announcement will be read with regret, as the agreement with the city has been made on a cash basis. The water service will not be affected by the misfortune of Messrs. M. H. & M. G. Co. nor will the city be in any way by their failure.
The works are mortgaged for $150,000.

evening about 6 o'clock, that the house of Chas. Weaver, situated on the east side of the city, had been entered by burglars. Of-exam. and found that the house had been entered by the back kitchen, and that the door of which was not fastened.

$2.30 in money stolen. It is supposed that the robbers are boys who were acquainted with the premises and the occupants.
The police are at work on the case.

ter yesterday, Lieut. Vermyleny and Pre-tition each won $5 prize with scores of 88 out of possible 100 at 200, 500 and 1,000 yards.

A gusty wind and falling light interfered with the shooting in the S. and S. club's off. match last night. The following were J. H. Mills, 50; W. P. Clark, 53; W.
Douglas, 53; R. A. Davis, 50; R. S. Bell,

The race of the Royal Western Yacht Club for the Queen's cup was sailed on Tuesday of Plymouth. The starters were the Prince of Wales's "Britannia," F.
Donaldson's "Gallia," and A. D. Clark's "Gallia." The course was from Hot to Baginac outside Nova Head, a distance of some twenty miles to be covered twice.
At the start a fresh east-south-west wind was blowing. The yacht got away in fine form, but her jacks and rigging were lost. "Gallia" led away to the leeward.
"Britannia" and "Gallia" were engaged in a tugging match, although "Gallia" got long lead, which she held until the return to the windward, when both passed her on a dondrie the seaward buoy. At the finish the first round "Britannia" led, and Britannia's crew next, in rounding the Club Committee's vessel "Satania" bumped on Winter Shoal, but did not hang. Britannia passed over the shoal safely. "Gallia" lay in the rear, struck on a reef. The race was won by Britannia.

The Relief of Derry.

To the Relief of the Intelligencer.

Sir,—The subject of the following letter is my humble judgment as to a few matters, and having now said in value for some other pen than mine, I shall in discharge to reduce a few statements made against that church and its members, of which I am one, knowing them to be false and malicious, namely the Catholic church, or as she is frequently called in Derry, the Romish or Papist church, the word Roman denoting the Pope of Rome, the of the apostles and Papist a derivation or elaboration of the word Pope, denoting that sugest personage, who, from age to age, has the chair of St. Peter in Rome, and numbering 200 in unbroken succession to his present illustrious occupant, whose fallibility as visible head of that church, in faith and morals only—let it be understood as visible head of that church, from the devilized world.

A few days before the 15th instant, the day on which the great Orange demonstration in this city took place, the press called on the citizens to decorate in honor of those strangers who were expected to visit us. Many responded to the call, among them were several of our Catholics, and we must confess had an eye on the almighty dollar as well as their neighbors.

Now as regards the demonstration itself, whether, in the interest of that diabolic dissemination, D. A. McCarthy or not, and it is not very little said as Catholics against whom the demonstration is made, we are here to stay, having taken advantage of the fact that our enemies are not in this sacred soil and without being offensive or infringing our religion on any one, we shall endeavor to hold our own and live in peace with our neighbors. Neither are we going to lead facts into the matter for having an outing occasionally, whether it be for the cause of the gale of Derry, the battle of Derry or any other cause, it is a matter of fact, and according to the verdict of the great portion of society, a very good taste, at that, as all those days belong to a bloodthirsty barbarous age, when the English and Irish Irish like buffalo hunters on the western prairies, for their hides and tallow, and the sooner these days for justice the better for all parties concerned.

Of the stage of Derry, or more properly speaking Londonderry, I have nothing to say but praise for its heroic defense, a city conquered by King James I. in 1602 with 210,000 acres of land as part of the spoils of Ulster, who at once fortified it, adding Londonderry to ancient names, and jettison from their holdings all persons who would not forever their religion by taking the oath of supremacy. His majesty then bestowed it on the trades people of the republic of England, and it became an English garrison and house of contention till the defeat of King James II. in the most pusillanimous coward that ever set foot on Irish soil.

There was one feature in the proceedings, however, which was exceedingly regrettable, and which was a great discredit on its actors, of whom the Rev. W. P. D. Wilson, Plainfield, was the chief. He in the exuberance of his indignation, proclaimed his sacred calling to a blasphemy and abuse of his Catholic fellow citizens and endeavoring to arouse a feeling of hatred against them for the indignities of the people, though they number nearly one half of the population of the Dominion, holding possions of trust in every department from the main minister downwards, and he proves his thesis in this way, if he is reported correctly.

In the department of the civil service, of which Mr. Wilson spoke, he said there are employed by the Dominion Government 823 Catholics and 518 Protestants. Now these Roman Catholics receive annually for services rendered $70,743 or about $60 each, against $807,788 paid to the 513 Protestants, or about $1,575 each.

There is no doubt that the Catholics are certainly ought to satisfy the most commonest equal right when the former are employed in the civil service, and the latter does, but it does not, and the Premier's attention in the interest of the people, and the Dominion Government, now that the milk in the cocoas has leaked out, for with his breath he declared that the Catholics are not to be trusted.

By the way, the Rev. gentleman may be a very good man according to the light given him, but that light appears to be of the dark lantern kind, and shows a want of research, when he charges us with the worship of images, a false founder often repeated and as often repeated, as neither images, saints nor angels, nor even the visible image of God, are permitted to be worshipped in the Roman Catholic church, in the sense in which anti-Catholicism is believe, that is divine worship which belongs to God alone.

But how could my letter be much longer than I intended, I would like to pay my attention to other revered speakers, who said some very wise and very childish things. Mr. Cameron, of Brockville, for instance, in his very able oration reminded the Catholics of their obligations and not to vote for any Roman Catholic, in the hope that some day, his sense simplicity of his own kind, and his sense justice be, good man, supported the country people, who would like to know what of public opinion! He was opposed to them because they dismembered the Bible—a book of the Bible, and he said that he said unless he knew better use of it. Had he asked any Roman Catholic from whom he got the Bible, and who took care of it for fourteen centuries prior to the art of printing, when all Europe was covered by the handwritten Bibles and pilgins every sacred edition of their line of march, he would be told that the Bible was not Catholic monks under a wise dispensation of divine Providence and it is simply a piece of impudence for any man, or cleric, to make such an assertion before an intelligent audience. Pardon me, I had nearly forgotten the Rev. Mr. Hall, who came all the way from Montreal. He said that the Catholics were a people who were powder dry. It may be wanted at Ottawa when the Rev. gentleman is dissolving the Irish Parliament, headed by that Jesuit

"Survival of the Fittest!"

That business will best succeed which is conducted on the fairest principles. During these terribly difficult times "which try men's souls," we want you to know that we are, as a rule, moment for getting those sterling qualities which are needful to our present success. For one we do not offer goods from our great stock at less than cost, but always figure on close margin of profit, and remember we place before you a stock of clothing superior to any in Belleville.
Some unscrupulous dealers will tell you our goods are shoddy, etc., or we could not sell them so cheap. Once before we offered to donate $500 to any charitable institution in Belleville if for honest goods our stock is surpassed in Canada. We again make this offer, and if our competitors who cry shoddy! would only accept this challenge the public would soon see who carries the best goods. Furthermore we will donate another $500 if we can't prove we have lowered the price of clothing at least 33 per cent, since opening here, and this is our strongest guarantee that we conduct our business on honest principles. For the next 60 days we are going to hold a big

SALE

It is our intention this fall to manufacture all our own goods here in Belleville, thereby giving our patrons a chance to have their goods made to measure at the same cost as ready to wear garments. And in order to clear out our present stock and prepare for this we will sell goods at the following prices for the next 60 days:

Boys' Kicker P
" $5 Two-p
" $4 "
" $3.50
Men's $18 00 V
" 15.00 S
" 12.00
" 10.00 A
" 8 00

In a word we have taken the bit in our teeth and for the next 60 days will hurl the staunchest qualities unhesitatingly against the sharp rocks of reduction. Buyers, isn't it dollars in your pockets to take advantage of this great sale now?

Kingston Women's Medical College.

The WPA says "The board of trustees met yesterday and made arrangements for the seasonal opening on Wednesday, Oct.
4th. The introduction of the program was given by Dr. Elizabeth Embury, of Belleville, at the usual "At Home" by the ladies in their own building. Two medical scholarships having been presented, ladies were nominated to them on the condition that they will pledge themselves to enter the mission field in India or China, upon the completion of their medical studies. It will be the duty of the board for the privilege, and the board resolved that it is not to accept such and other conditions of the modern institution.
Possibly some one may provide $400 for the education of another student for the missionary field. The endowment of an Anglican scholarship has been fairly well begun, over $110 having been promised Mrs. Gildersleeve, who has the excellent object in charge. The staff this year is a strong one and the college will have a "Western season."

A Handsome New Craft.

Mr. E. B. Burrell's steam yacht, which Mr. Jack Robin built for him, and of which particulars were given some months ago, was launched at an early hour this morning. The yacht, which is painted white with brown upper works and buff smokestacks, looks very handsome. She is also likely to prove fast, as under 40 hp of steam she developed satisfactory speed.
With 100 hp, or upwards (her hull is much better than that) the yacht will travel very fast. Her dimensions are: Length overall, 35 ft.; length on water line, 29 ft. 6 in.; length of keel, 29 ft.; breadth of beam, 7 ft.; draft of water, 2 ft., 4 in.
